Gabriel greeted Mary: Good morning! You're beautiful with God's beauty, beautiful inside and out! God be with you.

Contemplative living for contemplative prayer is the way of yielding, of utmost surrender to the will of God. In Mary, we have a wonderful example of how to trust in the presence of the Holy Spirit and truly surrender each and every moment to the will of God in the present moment.

The Holy Spirit will come upon you, the power of the Highest hover over you...

An annunciation is the experience of a new beginning. In the words of Penelope Duckworth, it is:

that moment when a person is confronted with God, when the "Other" speaks to us, enters our world... the moment when God's plans pull us off course from our plans. (from Mary, the Imagination of her Heart, 2004)

With Mary as guide, as Mother of Jesus and first disciple, give yourself

the space to savour the Silence and the hovering power of the Spirit in your life. Let this Spirit of Love captivate you, enfold you and lead you deeper into the heart of God. And then sing with Mary:

*I'm bursting with God-news;
I'm dancing the song of my Saviour God. God took one good look at me, and look what happened - I'm the most fortunate woman on earth!
(Scripture translations from The Message Bible)*
